Join this interactive workshop to better prepare and empower yourself to communicate more effectively with your health care provider. Patients who take an active role in their health care are more satisfied, pursue timely and appropriate treatment and have a better quality of life!